

Morning Announcements Distracted Driving

More than 6000 distracted drivers crash and die every year. Forget the phone and mind the road. Put it down.

Dying in a car wreck is the ultimate unexcused absence. Don't drive with your phone in your hand. Put it down.

We want you here tomorrow. And the next day. And the next day. Don't talk or text while driving. Put it down.

Car crashes are the single leading cause of death in teenagers in the US. One of the main causes is distracted driving. Don't talk or text on your phone while you drive. Put it down.

It's no coincidence that distracted driving and teen traffic deaths are on the rise. Don't drive with your phone in your hand. Put it down.

Imagine 14 empty seats in your classroom. That's how many teenagers die every day in traffic accidents. Most of them from talking or texting while driving. Keep the classroom full. Put it down.

There's one area where you can beat your parents: Teenagers are 4 times more likely to die in a car crash than adults. Don't talk or text while you drive. Put it down.

No call is more important than your life. More than 6000 distracted drivers crash and die every year. Don't talk or text while driving. Put it down.

It's better to stay alive than to stay connected. Don't text or talk on your phone while driving. Put it down.

Here's an easy math problem: 26% of teens text while driving, which causes 16% of fatal crashes among teens, which translates to 14 dead teens every day. What's that equal? Put it down.

Keep your mind on the road when you get behind the wheel. Don't drive distracted.

Even little things can be big distractions when you drive. Keep your hands on the wheel and eyes on the road. Don't drive distracted.

The radio, your cell phone, food, even your friends – these all can be distractions while you're driving. Keep your mind on the road when you get behind the wheel.

Eating while you drive can be a bigger disaster than just getting mustard on your shirt. Stay focused on the road when you get behind the wheel.

For every second your eyes aren't on the road, you miss a lot you need to see. Keep your eyes and mind on the road when you're driving. Don't drive distracted.

If you don't pay attention in class, you might fail. If you don't pay attention when you drive, you might crash. Don't drive distracted.

